

I am against Broadband over powerlines. Tests have shown this would cause major noise problems in the HF bands. We have enough noise problems now with power companies that won't fix these problems. I have been fighting with Jacksonville Beach Florida now for almost a year over major noise from their power lines on 9th street about 4 blocks away. Their take on it is...Live with it.